

COLOR CONSULTATION

A color consultation includes

- One hour in home consulting session where I will analyze your needs, review inspiration pictures you have and work with your existing furniture and decor to create a color palette that is cohesive to your home
- Three custom color palettes for you to choose from.
- Up to two color palette revisions

Why hire a color consultant?

- A color consultant can pull together your tastes and home furnishings to create a color palette you love, saving you time and money
- Updating your home's color is an inexpensive way to update your home's look, the expense can come when you end up repainting which is why a color consult can save money in the long run
- A color consult can help you make a final decision, you may have already pulled together colors you love but need help developing them into a color scheme, a color consultant will do this for you

About Katie Campbell

As the daughter of the owners of High Cascade Painting Katie has grown up in the painting business and knows a thing or two about colors. In 2019 she did the interior design for a flip home her parents renovated. She has assisted her parents with several other projects including assisting them with color choices. She is currently a junior at OSU in the interior design program!
